Hello Danielle, Jasmine, Hanna, and Ginny!!!

I wanted to take a moment this morning to say a very special thank you for your work last night.

I'm reflecting on the past few months and I understand that you signed up for a professional writing class, and not necessarily a service project that clocks hours outside of your class meeting times. But that's what service learning looks like when you are engaging with the community - not everything can or should stay in the classroom. You took the opportunity to not only write for a community partner but to step out as fundraisers, advancing philanthropic giving at SNC for the community. I'm so impressed!

We are projected to raise over $3,500 because of your work. As you now know, in the hands of this program that means over $17,500 of economic relief for gardeners is possible.

I'll just let that sink in.

(You made a difference in the world this semester.)

=) Cheers amazing powerful women! 🍷🍴
